ORIGINAL ESSAY: (500-750 words)

Please Limit Essay to Two Pages and Include Essay with Application

Essay Prompt:

The year 2025 marked the 250th anniversary of the United States Navy and the 80th anniversary of the Battle of Okinawa where 60 crew members of the USS Emmons made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of their country. Throughout America's history, her citizens have answered the call for duty in the service of their country. This was often done under rallying battle cries such as John Paul Jones' "I have not yet begun to fight" and James Lawrence's "Don't give up the ship" and in some cases crewmembers providing nicknames for their warships as in the case of the USS Constitution, "Old Ironsides." In a similar manner, Emmons earned a distinct reputation among her sister ships in her destroyer squadron and was given the nickname "Easy Money," as it was always a sure bet that given any challenge, the Emmons would rise to the occasion and meet all of her operational commitment no matter how great the opposition and level of difficulty.

1. Based on the exploits of the ship as described in Rear Admiral Billingsley's book, The Emmons Saga, describe how "Easy Money" and her crew rightly earned and deserved the nickname and the reputation associated with it.
2. Describe your Emmons relative's role on the ship and how and why he and his shipmates, many of whom were less than 20 years old, developed such a strong sense of comradery and loyalty and how critical these traits were to come into play on April 6, 1945. Note: to help in understanding your relative's role aboard the ship, the "About" page on the Emmons Association website provides a listing of all ship personnel, their ratings/ranks and a description of their duties at the end of the listing.

Since 1953 the Emmons Association has held reunions in memory of the 60 brave souls who perished on that fateful day off Okinawa, as well as all crewmembers that have since passed away. Three generations of Emmons crew members' offspring have come into being since WWII and with the passage of time, it is possible that the sacrifice of these American heroes may be lost to future generations.

3. Is it important to you that awareness of the Emmons' service be promoted and, if so, why? And what can you do personally to support the Association's mission of preserving the Emmons legacy and the memory of the lost shipmates?

Essay Judging Criteria

Evaluation of essays will be performed by the USS EMMONS Legacy Committee led by the treasurer of the USS EMMONS Association. It shall be the responsibility of the EMMONS Association treasurer to screen all documents submitted by applicants and verify their eligibility. The treasurer in turn shall screen all essays to the extent that the identity of each essay's author remains anonymous, and subsequently forward the essays to the other members for unbiased evaluation and ranking.

In the event a relative of a Legacy Committee member submits an application, the treasurer will remove that member of the committee from participation in the scholarship selection process and replace that member with a qualified USS EMMONS Association member. Also, committee members are prohibited from providing guidance or any other assistance with regard to the essay, other than that already contained herein. The Legacy Committee will judge essays using the rubric on the following page, while considering:

- Originality. Treatment of the theme should show imagination and human interest, and
- Content. Clearly express your ideas in an organized manner; fully develop your theme and use transitions to move from one idea to another.

In addition to the two $2500 awards, a $500 honorable mention award may be granted if at least 5 qualifying applications are received. A second $500 honorable mention award may be granted if at least 7 qualifying applications are received. Honorable mention recipients must score at least an average of 3 on the judging criteria, excluding Mechanics, in the scoring rubric on the following page.
